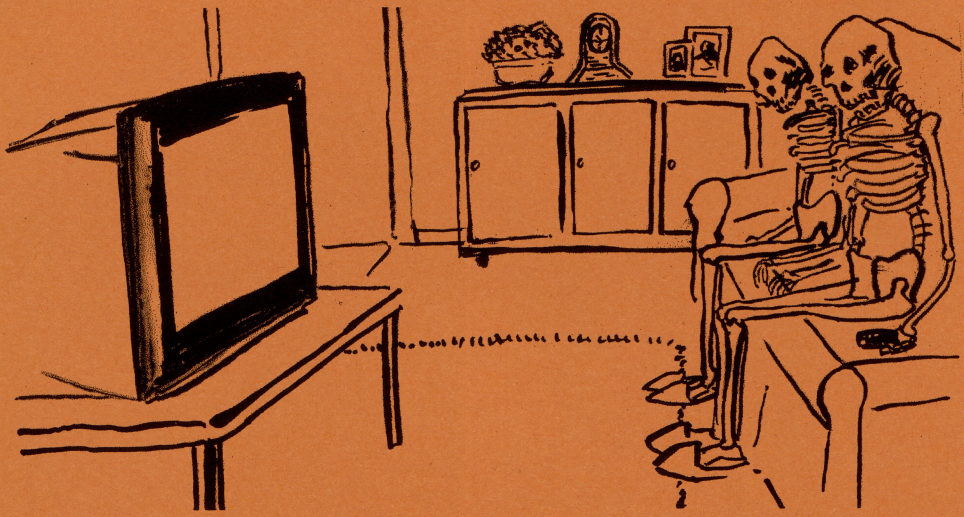
DIRTY PLATITUDE

PUNK COMIX ZINE N.1

PAY NO MORE THAN 4CHF/3 EUROS/3USD

ITS THIS DULLNESS OF THE URBAN WORLD, THIS DREARY DAY-TO-DAY LIFE MADE UP OF ROUTINE AND ABNEGATION, THAT STINKS AND THAT WE PUKE!
FUCKING "DIRTY PLATITUDE"!



Voila with many months off the tentative schedule, you are finally holding in your hands the first publication of "Dirty Platitude". The idea to make this zine came from the fact that being punks who enjoy drawing, we thought that the scene was lacking in non-professional comics or artistic zines.

At the beginning we intended to create something very international. Unfortunately our calls for contributions had trouble passing the borders, or even regions. In the end we find ourselves publishing contents of which 90% comes from around here and 10% from elsewhere. I hope that in the future we will be able to balance out "Dirty Platitude", in order to give the publication a more inter-regional and international character. Thank you to all the people who contributed to this first number of "Dirty Platitude".

So, whether you come from petaouchnok or plan-les-ouates or even from the deepest parts of the jungle, we're waiting for your contribution for the next edition.

If you wish to participate send in your drawings, comics, pictures or any other piece of yours at: à:

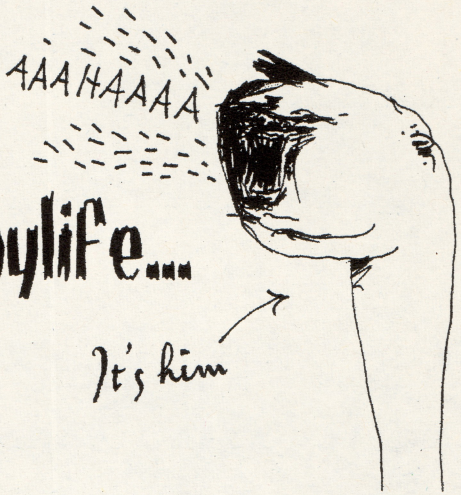
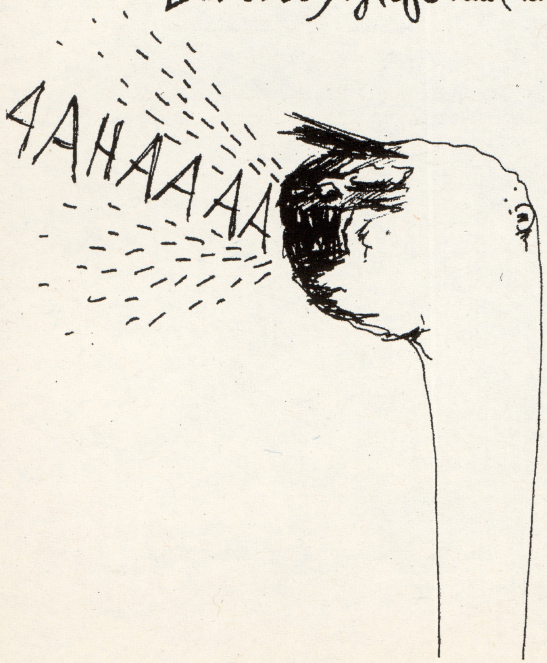
The Agrovision & Walt Disney studios present:
the fabulous, magic but nevertheless real story of...



But Mr Joylife had an handicap...



... at angtimes he was non-stop shouting and spitting a lot ...

He has a dog...

... named Snoopy

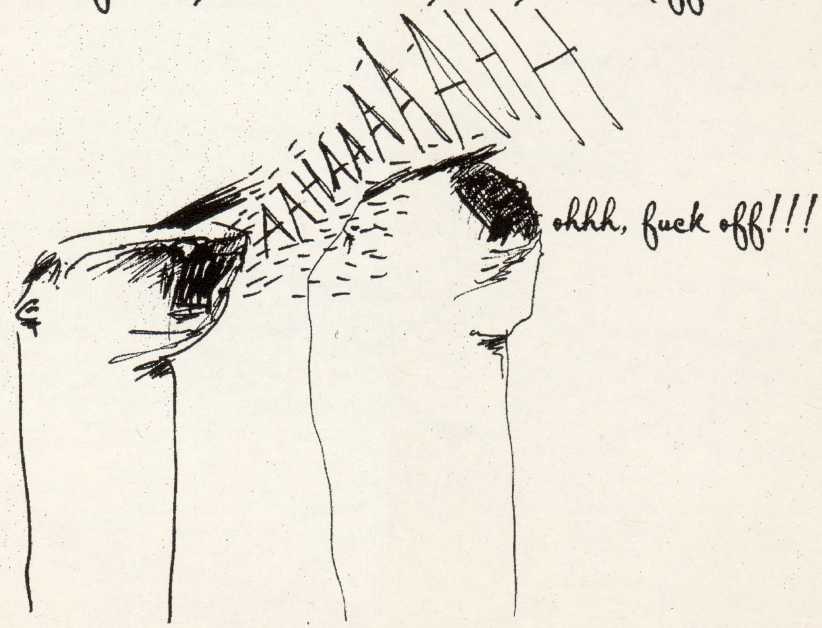
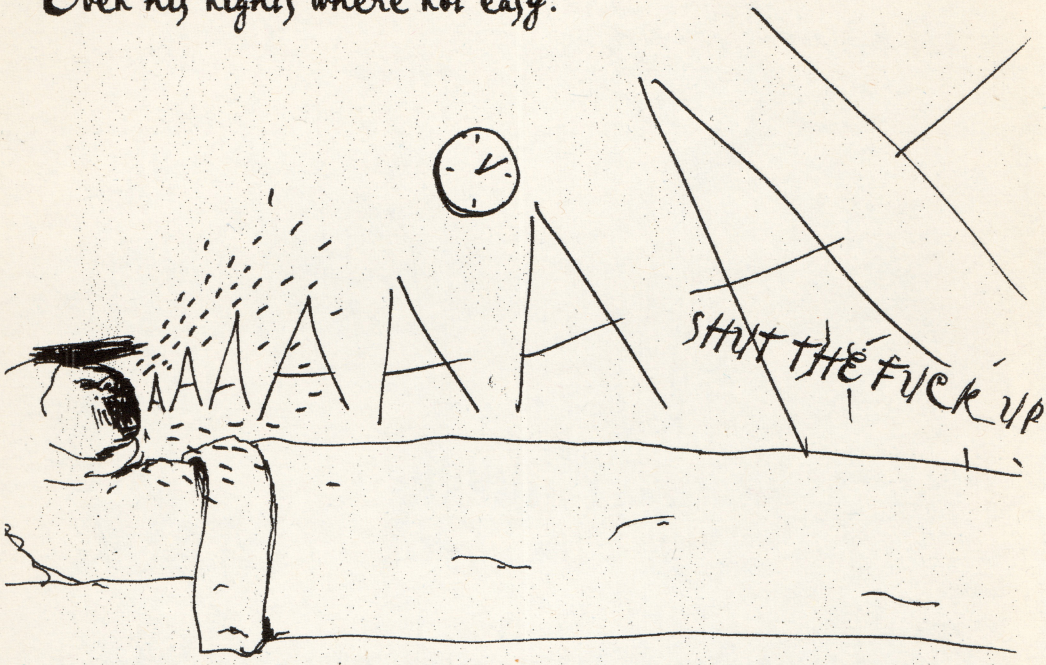
he was deaf born. It's OK then

He had some friends but... conversations were difficult

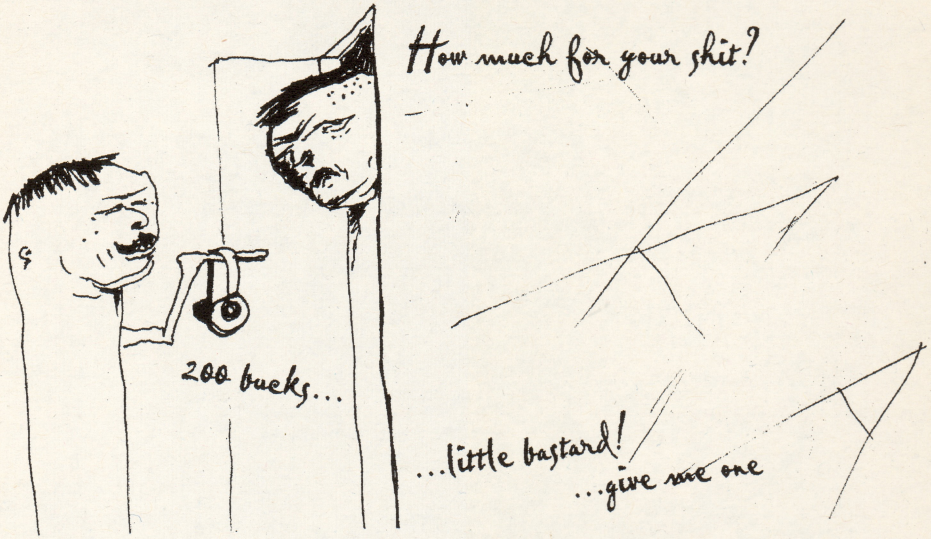


Even his nights where not easy.

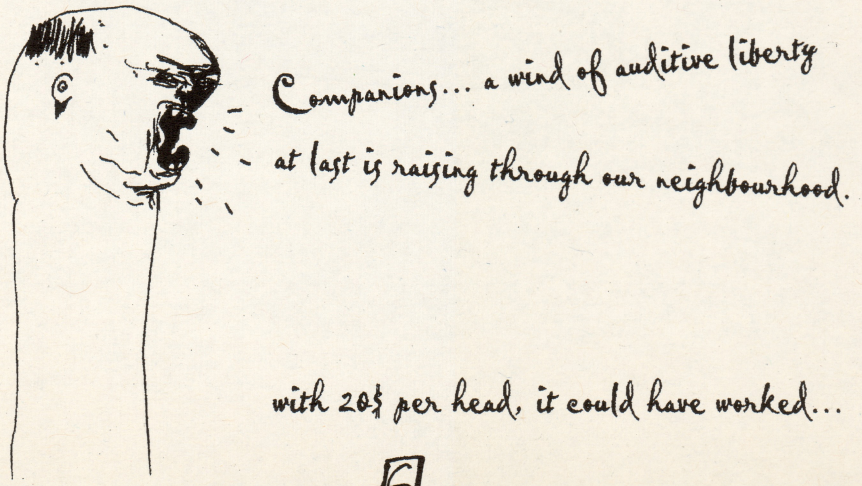


The doctor didn't find any solution...

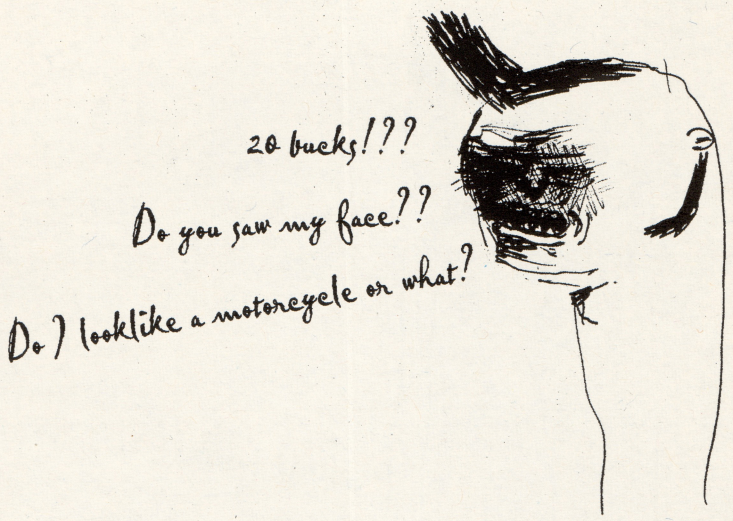
The neighbourhood's kids understood the bargain and were selling sound-proof helmet as ears protection.



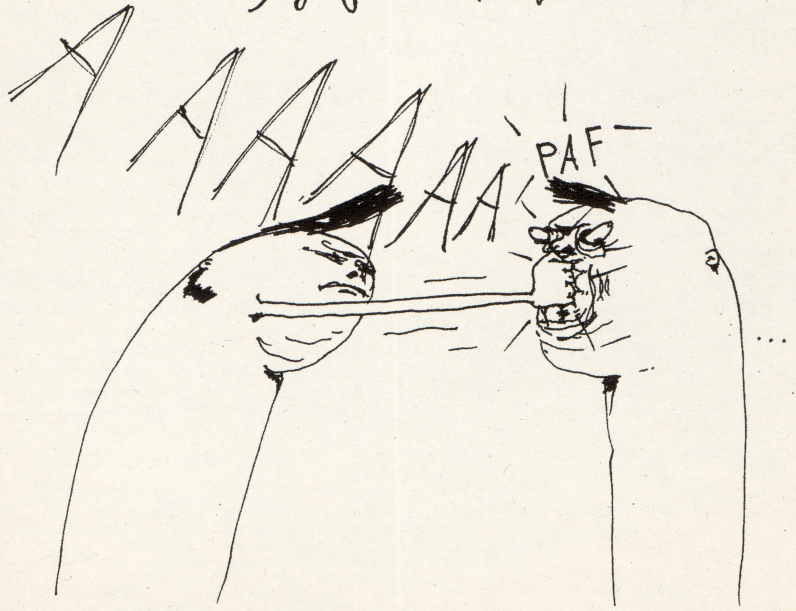
One day, the neighbours decceided to organise a collect for soundproofing his apartment...



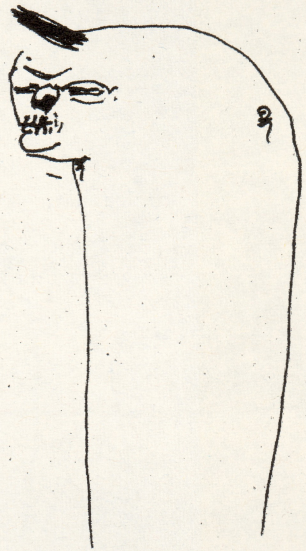
But the neighbour upstairs - Bébêrt - was determined in not giving any money for this asshole...



So he went to Mr. Joylife... and he punch him in the face ...



His mouth was so damaged that the doctors had to sew it ...



... thanx Bébêrt
